

Education Abroad

Exchange Advisor:

Dan Lindeman

Email:

Dan.Lindeman@wwu.edu

Office: Miller Hall 208

Phone: 360-650-7241

Please see Dan Lindeman for more information or assistance in applying for an Exchange Program

Requirements:

2.5 GPA or above

Terms Available:

Semester or Academic Year

Housing:

Residence Halls/On Campus, Apartments or Independent Housing

Website:

studyabroad.wwu.edu

WWU Direct Exchanges

Interested in paying WWU In-State Tuition & fees for study abroad? The following programs are bilateral agreements where WWU and partner institutions abroad have agreed to exchange students.

Europe

Graz, AustriaKarl-Franzens Universitat Graz

Students can study in both English and German, although English language courses may be limited. Intensive German courses are available.

Mikkeli, FinlandAalto University School of Business

Students can take English courses in Business, Management, Accounting, Marketing, Finance, Economics, Business Law, Mathematics, and Foreign Languages.

Bordeaux, FranceKedge Business School

Students can take Business, Finance, or Marketing courses in English or French. Kedge is particularly noted for coursework in Supply Chain Management.

Paris/Caen, FranceEcole de Management de Normandie

EM Normandie is a French Business School, offering business courses in English or French.

Lyon, FranceUniversite Lumiere Lyon II

Study intensive French language at the 2nd year French level. French or English electives are available.

Duisburg, GermanyUniversity of Duisburg-Essen

Students may take courses in the Institute of Political Science in English.

Gottingen, GermanyGeorg-August-Universitat Gottingen

Students may take courses within the Faculty of Social Sciences. All courses are taught in German, with the exception of Modern Indian Studies, which is taught in English.

Rotterdam, NetherlandsErasmus University Rotterdam

English coursework is available in History, Culture, Communications and Social Sciences.

Lulea, SwedenLulea University of Technology

There is a wide selection of courses taught in English, especially in the fields of Business, Computer Science, Education, Engineering, Environmental Science, Health, Humanities, and Social Sciences.

Umea, SwedenUmea University

Courses are available in English in a variety of subjects including; Arts, Sciences, Business, Communications, Computer Science, Education, Engineering, Environmental & Social Sciences.

Hull, United KingdomUniversity of Hull

The University of Hull offers courses in 50 disciplines including Arts, Humanities, Business, Education, Health, Sciences & Social Sciences.

Plymouth, United Kingdom

Plymouth University offers courses in Social Science, Business, Science, Art, and Technology. Plymouth is especially strong in Business, Psychology. Many courses in maritime studies and science are complemented by field trips including fishing and diving expeditions. The Combined Arts Program, consisting of majors in art history, English, heritage, history, media arts, theatre, and visual arts is also available.

Plymouth University

Australia

Newcastle, Australia

Courses are available in Business & Law, Education and Arts, Health, Science and Information Technology, Engineering, Nursing, Aboriginal Studies, Sustainable Resource Management, Neuroscience, Media Studies, Art Therapy, Asian Studies, and Environment.

University of Newcastle

Perth, Australia

In addition to traditional fields of study, students can study Performing Arts, and unique coursework in topics such as Motor Sports, Surf Science, Game Design, Counter Terrorism Security & Intelligence, and Screen Studies.

Edith Cowan University

Tasmania, Australia

Students can take courses in Aboriginal Studies, Antarctic Studies, Aquaculture, Architecture, Education, Fine Arts, Geography & Environmental Studies, Law, Journalism, Media and Communications, Nursing, and Performing.

University of Tasmania

Asia

Akita City, Japan

AIU is a small university located in rural Akita prefecture. Aside from language classes, all courses are taught in English. Students can take upper-division courses in Japanese Studies, International Business, or Global Studies. Housing options now include a Diversity House, fostering collaborative learning for students of color, LGBTQ, and students with disabilities, and a Culture House, that embraces a deeper understanding of Japanese culture, philosophy, and art.

Akita International University

Nagoya, Japan

NUFS offers two programs; the Contemporary Japan Program in Nagoya (CJPN), which focuses on developing a knowledge of Japan, and the Japanese Language and Japanese Studies Program (JLJP), which focuses on developing mastery of the Japanese language.

Nagoya University of Foreign Studies

Tokyo, Japan

Asia U offers an intensive, non-credit bearing Japanese language program in the Spring followed by a moderately paced language program in the Fall with additional undergraduate courses available taught in Japanese. Students are encouraged to apply for an academic year starting in the Spring.

Asia University

Tokyo, Japan

Tsuda is one of the best known women's colleges in Japan. With relatively few international students, Tsuda provides a great opportunity to become immersed in everyday life with Japanese students. Tsuda offers Japanese Language courses and content courses in English.

Tsuda Women's College

Kichijoji, Japan

The Seikei Institute for International Studies (SIIS) provides several Japanese language and Japanese culture subjects for foreign students. Students are divided into small classes by proficiency level, and learn reading, grammar, conversation, etc., in a balanced way.

Seikei University

Yokohama, Japan

Students going to YNU enroll in the JOY program (Junior Year Overseas at Yokohama national University) Courses are offered in varieties of disciplines covering humanities, social sciences, and engineering in English. Other courses in Japanese may be available.

Yokohama National University

Seoul, South Korea

Students can participate in the Korean Language Program at Seoul Women's University or take additional coursework in Korean. Some coursework is available in English

Seoul Women's University

Seoul, South Korea

In addition to Korean language, Yonsei University has developed a wide range of university courses taught in English, including Business, Communications, Computer Science, Engineering, Technology, International Studies, Math, Humanities, Health, and Social Sciences.

Yonsei University

Taipei, Taiwan

NCCU offers coursework taught in English and Chinese in the fields of Business, Economics, Finance, International Business, International Relations, and Marketing. Students can take business courses only, language courses only, or a combination of both.

National Chengchi University