Peru Summer Course 2018 Schedule

June 18-22 - We will meet on campus to prepare for the expedition. During this time we will discuss possible research topics. We will also ensure that everyone has the proper equipment and prepare everything needed to travel abroad.

July 25 – Students meet in Lima, Peru. We will all meet at the hotel that evening. Most of us will travel as a group down to Peru.

July 26 – Bus from Lima to Huaraz as a group

July 27-July 1 – We will be in Huaraz getting used to the altitude (~9800 feet) and visiting the National Park headquarters, pre-Incan ruins, the local university, and getting prepared for the field. Students buy their own meals and shared rooms will be provided.

July 2-6 – Camping in Ulta valley. All food will be provided and prepared by local cooks. Donkeys will carry our equipment and packs. Students are responsible for bringing their own camping gear.

July 6 – 8 – In Huaraz for laundry and showers. Students buy their own meals and shared rooms will be provided.

July 9-15 – Camping in Quilcayhuanca valley. All food will be provided and prepared by local cooks. Donkeys will carry our equipment and packs. There will be an optional opportunity to climb Maparaju and cross into Cojup valley.

July 16 – 17 – In Huaraz for laundry and showers. Students buy their own meals and shared rooms will be provided.

July 18 -24 – Camping in Llanganuco Valley. All food will be provided and prepared by local cooks. Donkeys will carry our equipment. Students are responsible for bringing their own camping gear. There will be an optional opportunity to climb Ishinca.

July 25 - 26 – Huaraz to present projects and pack

July 27 – Lima and flight home