Internships and Fellowships with the U.S. Department of State: Planning Ahead and Getting Ahead on your Applications!

Thursday, June 25 | 1pm to 2 pm
Register at http://tinyurl.com/y93t3sg8 to receive the Zoom link

The U.S. Department of State represents U.S. interests around the world. The Department’s employees, with their skills, character, and commitment to public service, are the backbone of America’s diplomacy. Diplomat in Residence for the Northwest Micaela Schweitzer-Bluhm, along with Diplomat in Residence for New England Phil Beekman and Diplomat in Residence for the North Central Lou Fintor, will talk with students about the internship and fellowship programs, with an eye toward preparing students for the applications which are due in September.

A 23 year veteran of the U.S. Foreign Service, Micaela Schweitzer-Bluhm is the Diplomat in Residence for the Northwest. She most recently served as Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy in Skopje, North Macedonia.

A fifteen year veteran of the U.S. Foreign Service, Philip Beekman is the Diplomat in Residence for New England. He most recently served as the Public Affairs Chief at the U.S. Embassy in Ljubljana, Slovenia.

A fifteen year veteran of the U.S. Foreign Service, Lou Fintor is the Diplomat in Residence for the North Central region. He most recently served as Spokesperson at the U.S. Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan.