The Canadian Consulate of Canada, Seattle and Western Washington University are opening the Virtual Canada-U.S. Relations International Learning Assignment for Spring 2021 (March 30-June 11). The successful candidate(s) will participate in a virtual capacity and not be located at the Consulate General's Seattle offices. The successful candidate will be responsible for having access to a computer and a high-speed connection to the internet.

Open to: WWU undergraduate and graduate students who are either Canadian or dual nationals (US-Canada) with an interest in Canada-U.S. relations, including political, economic, environmental, border security, defense, cultural and diplomatic elements that make it one of the most important and mutually beneficial bilateral relationships that the world has ever known.

Overview: WWU students will earn 5 credits toward C/AM 444 (Canadian Studies Internship) with 15 – 20 hours/week. Successful candidates must work remotely from the United States; some occasional hours may be required outside of normal working hours. Students can enroll in C/AM 444 with the approval of the Director for the Center of Canadian-American Studies (Christina Keppie – christina.keppie@wwu.edu). Students will receive a letter grade in consultation with the Director.

Deadline for Applications: Friday, February 12th 2021

Program Description

The International Learning Assignment Program provides interns with an opportunity to learn about Canada-U.S. relationship from Canadian Diplomats and Governmental Affairs experts. The successful candidate will be asked to engage in political and economic research; to support policy development and advocacy efforts; to think creatively and practically about digital diplomacy, among other related elements. For example, the successful candidate may be asked to update or develop the following:

- Bilateral Relations Briefs for WA, OR, ID and AK
- Political/Economic Relations Briefs for WA, OR, ID & AK
- Commercial Relations Briefs for WA, OR, ID and AK
- Digital Diplomacy efforts, including support for social media outreach and advocacy, virtual outreach concepts and a variety of other cutting-edge initiatives.

The program is intended to be a valuable educational experience which provides skills and knowledge for personal and professional growth.

All interns are retained on a non-remunerative basis. The Consulate operates on a typical schedule of 8:00AM to 4:30 PM, five days per week.
