Read and complete the following steps to ensure accurate completion of the Departmental Academic Advising Form. This form will be used by EdAbroad and the WWU Registrar’s Office to document the agreement between you and your academic department regarding credit transfer and progress towards your degree.

1. Attend Western Abroad 101 if you haven’t already. Then meet with an EdAbroad advisor for assistance in selecting a program.
2. Email your academic advisor to let them know about your interest in study abroad and set up an appointment. Ask if there are any courses in your program of study that must be taken on campus. Complete Step 3 prior to meeting with your advisor.
   - If you are planning to earn elective credit ONLY while abroad, skip to Step 9.
3. Locate course options on your program website that might meet major or minor requirements. We recommend obtaining course descriptions for courses you believe may fulfill these requirements and sharing with your departmental academic advisor. It can also be helpful to share your academic history and plan of study. You may want to look over WWU’s course catalog for the full list of required courses in your major or minor.
   - You can find course descriptions of WWU courses in the course catalog. Look for courses through your study abroad program that correspond to courses at WWU. Think about courses that you will take after your study abroad program as well, so that you can take any requirements regarding prerequisites into account.
   - It is helpful to find more courses than you will end up taking, so that your advisor can assist in deciding which courses will best fulfill your program requirements.
4. Meet with your departmental academic advisor. Please note that the Registrar does not designate major/minor credit. In order to receive credit towards your major or minor, you must meet with an academic advisor in your department.
5. Your academic advisor will review course options with you, and has jurisdiction over which WWU program requirements may be met by each of the courses you take abroad. Ask your advisor about your department’s process for evaluating study abroad courses to determine whether credit may be granted. We strongly recommend that you bring back exams, written coursework, syllabi, books, etc.
6. Please note that coursework taken at the lower-division level (100- and 200-level) cannot be used to satisfy WWU’s 60 credit upper-division minimum requirement even if it is given a WWU upper-division course equivalency or used as upper-division course requirement in the major/minor.
7. All coursework to be applied in the major/minor must have an equivalent grade of C- or better.
8. With your advisor, complete the form on Page 2, noting the courses you will take abroad, the requirements they might fulfill in your major/minor at WWU and any notes your advisor wishes to add.
9. Students planning to earn elective credit only should fill in the table below. You do not need an advisor to sign off on elective credit.
10. Return completed form to Education Abroad office, EdAbroad@wwu.edu, Miller Hall 208.

I understand that the courses listed as electives will not be used to fulfill specific graduation requirements but might count towards my 180 total needed for graduation.

I understand that receiving credit for any/all courses listed on this form requires successful completion of the course(s). *

I have read the instructions listed above, met with my advisor if necessary, and completed this form to the best of my ability.

* To aid in the course approval process it is recommended that you save all syllabi and major assignments from courses taken abroad. If you or your advisors have questions about this form or process, please contact EdAbroad at (360) 650-3298 or EdAbroad@wwu.edu.
